

University of Cambridge - Institute of Criminology

Master of Studies in Applied Criminology, Penology and Management

The course fee will include tuition, college fees, accommodation, breakfast and one formal dinner per week. Rooms are normally made available from the Sunday evening prior to the course and need to be vacated by 9am the final Friday morning in each residential block. Rooms are held over the middle weekend in each block. Other meals are not included. A certain amount of pre-course reading material is also provided and access to the Cambridge University Library and its dependent libraries is also included. If delegates wish to hire bicycles for the duration of their stay, the Course Administrator will help organise this.
