

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

The Centre for Criminal Justice (Law) and Centre for Community, Gender and Social Justice present:

Prison to court video links: pixelating the prisoner and procedural justice'

CRIMINOLOGY

Institute of Criminology

Dr Carolyn McKay

Lecturer in Law, Deputy Director, Sydney Institute of Criminology, UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY LAW SCHOOL

"Dr Carolyn McKay is a Lecturer in Law at the University of Sydney Law School. Her research examines the impacts of audio visual technologies (video links) on prisoners' court appearance and access to justice. Carolyn's research interests include technologies in justice, prisons and prisoners, visual criminology, surveillance, policing and interdisciplinary research methodologies. At Sydney Law School Carolyn teaches Criminal Law and Civil & Criminal Procedure. Over the years she has taught other courses including The Legal Profession, Legal Research, Research Methodologies and Professional Practice at the University of Sydney, University of Newcastle and Hunter Institute and acted as a research assistant on numerous projects and publications. In 2013, she was a Visiting Scholar at the Oñati International Institute for the Sociology of Law, Spain. Carolyn has previously consulted on anti-dumping trade disputes and indirect taxation in both Sydney and Tokyo and worked in digital media." <http://sydney.edu.au/law/about/people/profiles/carolyn.mckay.php>

Thursday 14th June 2018, 2 – 3.30pm

B4, Institute of Criminology, Sidgwick Avenue, Cambridge, CB3 9DA

All welcome.

A light lunch will be available from 1.15pm

Please let Sara know if you wish to attend lunch by 1pm, Wednesday 13th June for catering purposes