A Panel Debate on Prison Privatisation

March 16, 2011 at 6:30pm

University of Cambridge Faculty of Law, LG19

The privatisation of prisons is a highly contentious issue from business, legal, philosophical, and moral perspectives. Does the private sector provide more effective, efficient or humane prison management? What are the implications of increased privatisation in the correctional sector? Come and hear from our expert panel and make up your own mind...

Panelists:

- Jamie Bennett, Governor, HM Prison Morton Hall
- Stephen Nathan, Editor, Prison Privatisation Report International
- Jerry Petherick, Managing Director, Offender Management, G4S Care & Justice Services
- Peter Wright, Governor, HM Prison Nottingham

Chair:

- Dr. Ben Crewe, University of Cambridge Institute of Criminology

This presentation is jointly sponsored by the Howard League for Penal Reform and the University of Cambridge Institute of Criminology.
