

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

Proof and Evidence Conference

Law Faculty, University of Cambridge
6th March 2009

Programme

- 0900 – 0940 Registration, tea and coffee, Law Faculty basement
- 0940 – 1000 Welcome, B16, Law Faculty
- Session chair – Dr Katrin Mueller-Johnson
- 1000 – 1045 Dr Michelle Cowley, Centre for Socio-Legal Studies, Oxford
'Linguistic cues and exemplar generation in DNA reasoning: Implications for legal reasoning and DNA databases'
- 1045 – 1130 Ms Lisa Hall, New Scotland Yard and Ms Emma Player, Surrey Police
'Fingermark identification and the effect of a crime type context on decision outcomes'
- 1130 – 1215 Dr Samantha Lundrigan, University of Cambridge
'Juror attitudes and interpretations of reasonable doubt'
- 1215 – 1315 Lunch, Institute of Criminology
- Session Chair – Dr Mandeep Dhami
- 1315 – 1400 Dr Katrin Mueller-Johnson, University of Cambridge
'Effect of judicial instructions on interpretations of reasonable doubt'
- 1400 – 1445 Mr Lionel Blackman, Lionel Blackman Solicitors
'Uses of Modern technology in the Criminal Trial'
- 1445 – 1530 Dr Floris Bex, Groningen University
'Making sense of crime stories and evidence - a logical approach'
- 1530 – 1545 Tea and Coffee, Law Faculty basement
- Session Chair – Dr Samantha Lundrigan
- 1545 – 1630 Dr Mandeep Dhami, University of Cambridge
'Framing effects in reasonable doubt instructions'
- 1630 – 1715 Prof Jeffrey Rachlinski, Cornell Law School
'Attribution and apology in trial judges'
- 1715 – 1730 Conference close
- 1730 – 1830 Drinks reception, Law Faculty basement