Or post to:
Graduate Administrator
Institute of Criminology, University of Cambridge
Sidgwick Avenue, Cambridge CB3 9DA, United Kingdom

IN CONFIDENCE – To be completed by the referee, then forwarded directly to the above address or email address by 31 May. (You may forward a letter instead of using this form.)

The Managers of the Jerry Lee Studentship are very grateful to those who act as referees and would value a statement about the suitability of this candidate, who must be working full time in a criminal justice agency or similar. The Managers look for evidence of considerable promise of achievement by successful candidates.

A student, if not already a member of the University of Cambridge, will be required to become one in accordance with University regulations, which includes joining a College. The studentship is tenable for the duration of the course, covering the annual part-time fee for a maximum of five years part-time study. Should the student take more than five years to complete their PhD, there will be no further funding available after five years.
