Research into Practice Conference
The Butler Trust and the Institute of Criminology (University of Cambridge)
Date: 7 September 2016 - Venue: Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge, CB3 9DZ

[09.45-10.15: Arrival / Registration]

10.15-10.30: Opening / Welcome
Professor Alison Liebling, Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice, and Director of the Prisons Research Centre, Institute of Criminology
Simon Shepherd, Director, The Butler Trust

10.30-11.15: The Good Lives Model and Desistance: Correctional Implications
Professor Tony Ward, Professor, School of Psychology, Victoria University of Wellington

11.15-12.00: Prison social climate and reoffending: A new analysis and their implications
Professor Alison Liebling, Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice, and Director of the Prisons Research Centre, Institute of Criminology
Dr Katherine Auty, Research Associate, Prisons Research Centre, Institute of Criminology

[12.00-12.15: Break]

12.15-13.00: Beyond Heavy-Light: Rethinking penal power
Dr Ben Crewe, Deputy Director of the Prisons Research Centre, Institute of Criminology, and Director, Master of Studies (MSt) Penology Programme

[13.00-14.00: Lunch]

14.00-14.45: Desistance, Imprisonment and Release
Professor Fergus McNeill, Professor of Criminology & Social Work, University of Glasgow

14.45-15.30: Making Prisons Work: Leadership, Culture and Outcomes for Prisoners
Ian Blakeman, Executive Governor, HMPs Holme House and Kirklevington Grange
Pia Sinha, Governor, HMP Thorn Cross

15.30-16.00: Address and Closing Remarks
TBC

[19.00: Drinks Reception at Peterhouse College followed by dinner at 19.30 (Reserved guests only)]

Charges: Daytime programme only: £20 | Peterhouse drinks and dinner: £70 | Both events: £90
Queries: Lucinda Bowditch: ljb55@cam.ac.uk | 01223 335373

Registration: Please note that registration closes on 23 August 2016

http://onlinesales.admin.cam.ac.uk/browse/extra_info.asp?compid=1&modid=2&deptid=310&catid=1274&prodid=1699