

“Evidence in the Courtroom: Possibilities and Challenges, Validity and Value”

24 - 25 September 2007

at the Institute of Criminology University of Cambridge

Speakers include:

Dr Steven Cammiss
Professor Andrew Cooper
Dr Itiel Dror
Dr Loraine Gelsthorpe
Dr Adrian Grounds
Professor Friedrich Lösel
Dr Carole McCartney
Dr Katrin Müller-Johnson
Professor Francis Nolan
Nicky Padfield
Professor Peter Raynor
Professor John Spencer
Professor Willem Wagenaar

This small-scale conference aims to bring together a range of academics and legal and criminal justice practitioners to exchange ideas in relation to the validity and value of different kinds of evidence in the courtroom and to address some of the challenges in communicating evidence across interdisciplinary boundaries.

For further details contact events@crashh.cam.ac.uk

or visit

www.crashh.cam.ac.uk/events/2006-7/evcourtroom.html

CRASHH

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE