Legal Dissonance:

The Interaction of State Criminal Law with Customary Law in Papua New Guinea

Dr Shaun Larcom

Department of Land Economy, University of Cambridge

Institute of Criminology Public Seminar Series

Thursday 28th April 2016, 5.30pm

Seminar Room B3, Institute of Criminology,
Sidgwick Avenue, Cambridge, CB3 9DA

A drinks reception in the basement foyer will follow this seminar for attendees

In this seminar Dr Larcom will outline the concept of legal dissonance and its consequences in a legally pluralistic environment such as Papua New Guinea. He will also provide a framework on how criminal law can be internalised in a legal transplant society and present empirical results in relation to payback homicides.

Dr Shaun Larcom is a University Lecturer at the Department of Land Economy at the University of Cambridge and is a Research Associate at the von Hugel Institute at St Edmund's College.

This seminar is free, and is open to all interested in attending, with no ticket required.
